Event Overview

The OUT & About Mixer brings together members and leaders from three organizations at the intersection of business, law, and advocacy for an evening of meaningful connection and relationship-building.

Co-hosted by the Greater Houston LGBTQ+ Chamber of Commerce, the Houston Bar Association LGBTQ+ Committee, and Lambda Legal, this gathering represents the first collaboration of its kind among our organizations—creating a powerful opportunity to connect professionals and community leaders across Houston’s business and legal communities.

Hosted at the Residence of His Majesty’s Consul General Richard Shackleton MBE & Mr. Pedro Ruiz of the British Consulate General in Houston, this event offers a unique setting for engagement among Houston’s business leaders, attorneys, corporate partners, and community advocates.

Set in the elegant Consulate Residence in River Oaks, the evening will foster authentic connections, strengthen partnerships, and create new opportunities for collaboration across our collective networks.

We extend our sincere thanks to His Majesty’s Consul General Richard Shackleton MBE & Mr. Pedro Ruiz with the British Consulate General Houston for graciously hosting this special gathering. As the new Consul General, this event will be one of his first events in Houston and at the Residence.

Audience

Attendees will include members and leaders from across the three host organizations, representing a cross-sector audience, including:

- Business owners and executives
- Corporate leaders and decision-makers
- Attorneys and legal professionals
- Corporate counsel and law firm partners
- LGBTQ+ community leaders and advocates
- Chamber Impact Partners and sponsors
- Emerging leaders and rising professionals

This event provides sponsors with the opportunity to connect directly with professionals and decision-makers actively engaged in advancing inclusive business and legal environments across Greater Houston.
