In 2026, the Greater Houston LGBTQ+ Chamber of Commerce celebrates a transformational milestone — 10 years of building an economy where everyone belongs. For a decade, the Chamber has built a thriving LGBTQ+ economic ecosystem — strengthening visibility, expanding economic opportunity, and championing inclusion for the LGBTQ+ and Allied community across Greater Houston.

We're honoring this decade of progress at the Pride In Business Celebration + After Party, the region's premier and only business-focused Pride Month event.

In 2026, we honor the impact achieved and launch the next era of economic progress at this milestone event. Join us as we celebrate a decade of achievement — and ignite the future of impact.

Emcee

Len Cannon
KHOU 11 News Anchor
KHOU 11

Len is an award-winning journalist having won Emmy Awards in local news, the National Association of Black Journalist First Place Award and the prestigious Columbia University Dupont, "Silver Baton" award for his reporting as a correspondent for Dateline NBC.

He has also won various community awards, including one from the Houston Fire Department.

"Guys we are going to have to evacuate." It was those words that became a defining moment for KHOU 11 News and Len Cannon was there.

He was in the midst of anchoring round-the-clock coverage of Hurricane Harvey in August of 2017, when the station started taking on water.

"We were forced off the air for several hours until we moved to another studio."

Len is a graduate of Ashland University in his home state of Ohio, where he majored in radio and TV. "It was a small school that was nourishing and encouraging."

Something monumental happened to Len since moving to Houston. He became a dad. His wife is a former news and documentary producer in New York, and is founder of parentspost.com.

We are excited to welcome Len Cannon back again this year as emcee for the Pride In Business Celebration. A trusted voice in Houston and a familiar face to our community, Len brings professionalism, warmth, and steady leadership to the stage—and we are honored to have him return to help guide this year's celebration.

After Party & Expo

Pride In Business isn't Pride In Business without the legendary After Party—and this year, we're raising the bar even higher.

New for 2026, the Pride In Business Celebration Expo will open before and after the luncheon, giving attendees extended time to connect with Chamber members and sponsors, explore dynamic activations, and engage with the businesses and partners driving our region's inclusive economy.

After the luncheon and awards, the ballroom doors open and the celebration continues. The Expo comes alive alongside the legendary Pride In Business After Party, featuring high-energy activations, vibrant spaces, and nonstop opportunities to connect and celebrate.

This is not a quick in-and-out event. It's an all-day Pride In Business experience connecting—and we promise, you're going to want to take the day off.
